Giorgio's Pizzeria SF is often described as being "just like New York". While always honored that east coasters are so complimentary, we also enjoy the fact that our savory roots go back even further—all the way to the Italian island of Ischia, off the coast of Naples. Ischia is where many credit as the birthplace of pizza many centuries ago; it's also where Giorgio Anastasio, our founder, was born. Giorgio brought his family's recipes to America and opened Giorgio's at the corner of Clement and Third Avenue in 1972.

After some overwhelming years of operating the busy restaurant by himself, Giorgio turned to good childhood friends for help. In 1978, Contini brothers Tony and Victor took over for Giorgio and continued using all of Giorgio's original recipes while mixing in some modern flavors and fresh flourishes. The Contini family continues to operate Giorgio's today.
